

A STUDY OF STRIKE AND LOCK-OUT IN

MEMON AND MEMON PRIVATE LIMITED, KOLHAPUR

LIST OF TABLES

PERSONAL DATA :

1. Age Group of the respondents.
2. Religionwise distribution of the respondents.
3. Castewise distribution of the respondents.
4. Marital status of the respondents.
5. Educational qualification of the respondents.
6. Rural-urban background of the respondents.
7. Migration status of the respondents.
8. Type of family of the respondents.
9. Dependent members in the family of the respondents.
10. Earning members in the family of the respondents.
11. Previous employment of the respondents.
12. Mode of recruitment of the respondents in the Company.
13. Age and Service period of the respondents.
14. Monthly wages at the time of joining.
15. Age and present monthly wages of the respondents.
16. Reasons for overall change in wages.

17. Frequency of gradations secured by the respondents.
18. Age and gradation of the respondents.
19. Service period and gradation secured by the respondents.
20. Reasons for not getting gradations.
21. Yearly increment received by the respondents.
22. Family maintainability at present wages.
23. Service period and family maintainability of the respondents.
24. Family maintainability and other source of income.
25. Non-maintenability of family and other source of income.
26. Respondents' stay with family.
27. Types of other sources of income.
28. Yearly income from other sources.
29. Utilization of monthly income.
30. Service period and house ownership of the respondents.

31. Saving habits of the respondents.
32. Mode of saving.
33. Mode of conveyance to the company.
34. Adequacy of travelling allowance.
35. Respondents' satisfaction with regard to work, co-workers, supervisors, welfare facilities and increment policy.
36. Nature of grievances reported by the workers to management.

T H E U N I O N

37. Present union membership.
38. Loyalty of the workers to union after lock-out.
39. Reasons given by the employees for leaving their previous union.
40. Reasons given by the employees for joining the present union.
41. Respondent's role in the union.
42. Necessity of the trade union as felt by the respondents.
43. Reasons for necessity of the trade union.
44. Reasons for no necessity of union.
45. Age and union necessity.
46. Frequency of the union meetings.

47. Attendance in the union meetings.
48. Opinion of the respondents regarding the relationship between management and union.
49. Respondents' opinion about their union leaders.

T H E S T R I K E

50. Respondent's participation in the strike held in 1984.
51. Reasons for participation in the strike.
52. Major demands of the strike as per the say of respondents.
53. Ultimate fate of the strike.
54. Time utilization during the strike period.
55. Financial assistance received by the employees during strike.
56. Personal disgrace experienced by the respondents during strike.
57. Feeling of necessity to go on strike again to achieve demands.
58. Opinion of the respondents if union decides to go on strike again.
59. If union decides to go on strike again the reasons for support.
60. Age and support of the respondents to strike if union decides so again in future.

61. If union decides to go on strike again, the reasons for non-support.

T H E    LOCK-OUT

62. Effect of the lock-out on the Respondents.
63. Service period and the effect of the lock-out.
64. Lock-out non-affected employees and other source of income.
65. Respondent's opinion regarding management's decision of the lock-out.
66. Reasons assigned by the respondents who agree with the lock-out decision.
67. Reasons assigned by the respondents who do not agree with the lock-out decision.
68. Time utilization during the lock-out period.
69. Financial position of the respondents before lock-out.
70. Source of the finance received by the employees during lock-out.
71. Disposal or mortgage of the property during lock-out by the worst affected respondents.
72. Service period and sale/mortgage of the property by the severely affected respondents during lock-out.
73. Wages and mortgage/sale of the property by the severely affected respondents.

74. Reasons given by the workers for the end of lock-out.
75. Opinion of the respondentsa about the avoidance of the strikes and lock-outs.
76. Opinion of the respondents about direct representation of the problems to management by them and improvement of relations.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

77. Opinion of the respondents about company's attention to the workers' interests.
78. Opinion of the respondents about promises by management and observance.
79. General happiness of the respondents in the company.
80. Role of the Personnel / Welfare Officer in Establishing and maintaining good industrial relations.
81. Attitude of the respondents towards Transfer & Promotion, Wages, bonus, welfare facilities and social security measures.
82. Opinion of the respondents about the partnership between labour and management in running the company.
83. Opinion of the respondents about sharing of profit between labour and management.

84. Opinion of the respondents about government undertaking of all the companies.
85. Opinion of the respondents about periodical Tripartite settlement.

...oOo...