

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present dissertation is an outcome of the Research Work carried out by me for the fulfilment of the Degree of "MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY" of Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

I feel obliged and thankful to all those who helped me for this study.

I express my whole hearted thanks to Professor and Director of Centre for Community Development Dr. J. B. Ambekar (Yadav), M.A., Ph.D., who is my guide for this research work. At every stage of my work, he inspired and encouraged me with constant source of able guidance. His valuable suggestions, and ever-ready co-operativeness, have contributed a lot to my research work, without which it would not have been possible.

My respectful thanks are due to Dr. R. B. Patil, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his encouragement from time to time. I also like to thank Prof. S. N. Pawar, Dr. S. A. Salunkhe, Shri. D. Shrikant, Shri. K. B. Naik, Dr. Barve, Sujata Gokhale, for their suggestions and help.

I express my thanks to Father Christmas David and his family for their prayers, suggestions and amazing local assistance.
