

C O N T E N T S

	Page Number
PREFACE	i to v
CHAPTER-I : RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	1 - 11
1.1 Introduction	1 - 3
1.2 Statement of the problem	3 - 6
1.3 Objectives of the study	6 - 7
1.4 Samples	7 - 9
1.5 Data collection	9 - 10
1.6 Brief description of the chapters	10 - 11
CHAPTER-II : OVERVIEW OF LITERATURE	12 - 24
2.1 Introduction	12 - 15
2.2 Review of Some Research work done	15 - 21
2.3 Conclusions	21 - 22
References	23 - 24
CHAPTER-III : EMPLOYMENT POSITION IN FARM SECTOR	25 - 40
3.1 Employment in cane farms	26 - 27
3.2 Employment in allied development activities	27 - 29
3.3 Employment in harvesting and transport	29 - 38
3.3.1 Estimation of Development Group	30 - 31
3.3.2 Subramaniam Committee	32
3.3.3 Survey by Labour Commissioner	33 - 34
3.3.4 Author's Survey	35 - 38
References	40
CHAPTER-IV : WAGES OF SUGARCANE HARVESTING AND TRANSPORT WORKERS	41 - 51
4.1 Types of workers	41 - 43
4.1.1 Head Centre Workers	41 - 42
4.1.2 Direct Bullock cart centre workers	42
4.1.3 Tyre cart centre workers	42
4.1.4 Truck/Tractor centre workers	43
4.2 Wage rates	43 - 51
CHAPTER-V : INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS	52 - 120
5.1 The task	52 - 53
5.2 History of trade union movement in sugar industry	53 - 61
5.3 Recruitment and appointment of workers	61 - 67
5.4 Organisation of work	68 - 72
5.5 Conditions of work	72 - 74

CHAPTER-V (Contd...)

5.6	Industrial relation	74 - 93
5.6.1	The concept of workmen	74 - 80
5.6.2	The contract : Changing opera	80 - 82
5.6.3	The strikes	83 - 85
5.6.4	The demands	85 - 93
	References	119 - 120

CHAPTER-VI : SOCIO-ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF THE WORKERS : A SURVEY REPORT

121 - 156

6.1	Introduction	121 - 122
6.2	Classification of the workers	122 - 124
6.3	Class of work and sex	124 - 126
6.4	Castewise classification	126 - 128
6.5	Dependents of the workers of their original places	128 - 130
6.6	Children at destination	130 - 132
6.7	Frequency of migration	132 - 135
6.8	Causes of migration	135 - 137
6.9	Pattern and holding	137 - 139
6.10	Motivation	139 - 141
6.11	Accommodation	141 - 145
6.12	The working day	145 - 146
6.13	Classification of family problems	147 - 148
6.14	Indebtedness	149 - 153
6.15	Hiring rates of tyre carts	153 - 155
6.16	Conclusions	155 - 156

CHAPTER-VII : ROLE OF TRADE UNIONS

157 - 198

7.1	Scope of enquiries of trade unions	157 - 165
7.2	Membership of trade unions	165 - 168
7.3	Demands of the workers	168 - 171
7.4	Wage negotiations	171 - 182
7.5	Other efforts of trade unions	182 - 184
7.6	Facilities made available by sugar factories	184 - 187
	References	188

CHAPTER-VIII : EXTENT OF EXPLOITATION AND PROBLEMS OF THE WORKERS

199 - 223

8.1	Cost of labour	200 - 203
8.2	Work and wages of the workers : An estimation	203 - 210
8.3	Levels of exploitation	210 - 218
8.3.1	By the labour contractors	210 - 214
8.3.2	By the factory	214 - 218
8.4	Problems of workers	218 - 222
8.5	Conclusions	222
	References	223

CHAPTER-IX : UNIONISATION : A CHALLENGE AND AN APPEAL	224 - 243
9.1 Trade union principle	225 - 227
9.2 Ideological base of trade unions in sugar industry	227 - 236
9.2.1 The wage rates	228 - 229
9.2.2 Employment and productivity	229 - 230
9.2.3 Innovation	231
9.2.4 Health and safety	232 - 233
9.2.5 Work organisation and workers development	234
9.2.6 Social responsibility	234 - 235
9.2.7 Self control	235 - 236
9.3 Opinions of trade union leaders : A survey report References	236 - 242 243
CHAPTER-X : AN ALTERNATIVE APPROACH	244 - 252
10.1 Trusts/Societies : Management's Approach	244 - 246
10.2 Trade Union's approach	246 - 248
10.2.1 Enactment of a separate law	246
10.2.2 Payment of wages and wage awards	247 - 248
10.3 Some suggestions	248
10.3.1 Human resource development	248 - 249
10.3.2 Organisation of the work	249 - 250
10.3.3 Plantation and survey	250
10.3.4 Planning for the transport on the basis of distance	251
10.3.5 Social security measures and other other facilities	251 - 252