

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is not possible to express my profound gratitude in words, to my research guide Prof. P. N. Bhosale for his most competent and foreseeing guidance coupled with incessant encouragement at all phases of this work. His involvement in the minutest of the details has given this thesis in the present form. I am greatly indebted to him.

I am very much thankful to Prof. P. P. Hankare, Head, Department of Chemistry, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and Prof. M. B. Deshmukhi, Former Head, for encouragement and providing facilities to carry out the experiment and complete this work.

I sincerely thank to Prof. S. R. Patil, Prof. M. A. Anuse, Prof. K. J. Patil, Prof. G. S. Gokavi, Dr. P. S. Patil, Dr. U. V. Desai, Dr. D.H. Dagade, Dr. S. S. Kolekar, Dr. G. B. Kolekar, Dr. K. Y. Rajpure for fruitful discussion and valuable suggestions during the course of the work.

I am also grateful to my research colleagues Mr. S. R. Mane, Mr. N. S. Patil, Mr. S. N. Gawale, Mr. A. M. Sargar, Mr. Rahul Mane, Mrs. Sapana Patil, Mrs. Sanjivani Patil for their valuable guidance and kind co-operation.

I take this opportunity to thank the staff of USIC, CFC for their kind assistance for providing characterization facilities. I also extend my thanks to non-teaching staff of the department for their co-operation during my research work.

I am at lost of the words while expressing my deep feelings of gratitude towards my parents, brothers, sisters and relatives for the loving support and inspiration which has sustained me throughout my life, without their support and encouragement, it was almost impossible to stand in my life, the way I am today.

Once again I would like to express my sincere thanks to each and every one, who do not only have helped me in research work but also in preparation of my thesis.
