

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The present work is a M.Phil. Research Dissertation. The study is based on sample survey of women labour in seafood industry of Karwar Taluka. It intends to study the present socio-economic conditions. In preparation of this Dissertation, I have drawn help from numerous sources.

I express my deep gratitude to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for the award of Teacher Fellowship, which assisted me to take study leave from my job. The management, Principal and staff of Mahasatee Arts, Science and Commerce College, Ulga, Karwar, gave me constant encouragement and created a lively atmosphere which made me complete the course. I express my thanks to them for their generosity in permitting me to accept the UGC Teacher Fellowship and granting me the necessary study leave for one year.

I am indebted to Prin.(Dr.) P.S.Rao, Chhatrapati Shahu Central Institute of Business Education & Research, Kolhapur, my Research Guide, for his noteworthy and significant contribution. I am immensely indebted to him for his interest and guidance in this Study. I shall never be able to repay the kindness and encouragement that I have been receiving from him. I am fortunate enough to be his student.

I am sincerely grateful to Shri.Shama Bhatt, Deputy Director of Fisheries, Karwar, for his kind support and timely suggestions. I express my gratitude to all other officials of Fisheries Department for their co-operation.

(iv)

I am also thankful to the librarian and the staff of Chhatrapati Shahu Central Institute of Business Education & Research, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, and Karnataka University, Dharwad, for their co-operation and assistance throughout.

I am also thankful to field-worker Mohan Harikantar and respondents. I owe my special gratitude to my colleagues, Prof. (Smt.) M.K. Kerwadikar, and Prof. M.R. Naik, for providing me necessary information and active co-operation in completion of my work. I owe my indebtedness to my friend Smt. Geeta Bhandari for the typing work and prompt assistance throughout.

My work would remain incomplete if I do not thank my uncle Shri. S.D. Naik for his constant encouragement and concrete suggestions. Beyond all, I am indebted to my parents Smt. and Shri. S.K. Gaonkar, who have been the spirit behind my work. I must thank them for their endurance and affection.

However, I alone assume the responsibility for conclusions, errors and omissions, if any.

KOLHAPUR
Date: 17/11/88

(MAYA SAIROBA GAONKAR)