

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation was undertaken under the guidance of DR.V.S. MANGNALE, Head of Department of Economics, H.N. College of Commerce, Solapur and Ex-Dean, Faculty of Commerce, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. He is the first name to give my whole hearted thanks because he acted not only as a guide but showed me the right path, so that the marching towards the goal for me has become easier and happier. I learned to enjoy even while working hard because of his guidance.

I express my deep gratitude for DR. V.A. DOLAS, Principal, H.N. College of Commerce, Solapur. His encouragement and co-operation proved a lot.

On the way I met a lot of people who helped me. They are workers, office staff and officers especially Shri Shinde M.S. from N.G. Mill, Solapur, Mr. N.D. Sakhare of Vijay Data Services, Solapur who has done typing job exceedingly well. I express my gratitude for all of them.

My enthusiasm would not be sustained unless I am enough lucky to have affectionate hands of encouragement by my mother and all my present family members on my back.

Last and off course never the least I am much more than thankful and grateful to my husband Mr. Harshavardhan Gandhi who has helped me in this, not only ungrudgingly but cheerfully.

MISS SUSHAMA S. SHAH
