Seasonal migration of workers in the sugar industry is an acute problem today. Most of the seasonal workers migrate from drought prone areas of Marathwada region to sugar factories in the Western and Southern Maharashtra. I have completed this Minor Research Project in Economics Subject through UGC, Western Regional Office, Pune. (M.S.) under the scheme of Minor Research project.

This Minor Research project examines the issues and challenges of social security of unorganized migrant workers in the Sugar Industry.

I am grateful to the Joint Secretary of the University Grants Commission, Government of India, UGC, Western Regional office, (WRO), Pune, for sponsoring this study on "Social Security Status of Unorganized Seasonal Migrant Workers in the Sugar Industry, A Case Study of Kolhapur District."

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof.Dr.D.V.Muley, Registrar, Shivaji University, and Principal Dr.A.B.Rajage, Director, BCUD, and administrative staff of the Shivaji University for extending their support in all administrative matters.

I am grateful to the Principal Dr.B.A.Khot, Shri Venkatesh Mahavidyalaya, Ichalkaranji who inspired me to complete this project.

I extend my thanks to the faculty members and members of the Non teaching staff of Shri Venkatesh Mahavidyalaya for their co-operation.

I am thankful to Shri R.R.Patil, (Associate Professor and College Librarian), and staff of the library for their cooperation. I offer my thanks to the staff of the various librariers concerned.

I am thankful to the authors of the books, editors of the journals and Newspapers. I also received assistance from Workers Union leaders, Seasonal Migrant workers, labour welfare officers and administrative staff in the sugar factories of the research area. I am grateful to all of them.

Lastly, I record my thanks to Mr, Mujib Kutty of Limrass Computer Center for typing the manuscript of Minor Research Project report with care and efficiency.
