
ANNEXTURE NO. 1

Deposit mobilisation – A case study of Vikas Co-operative Bank Ltd., Solapur.

Questionnaire

- 1) When did you become the member of the bank
- 2) What was the amount paid for membership : Rs.
- 3) What promoted you to become member of
Vikas Co-operative Bank Ltd.
 - [a] Friends advise
 - [b] Relative Advise
 - [c] Social workers advise
 - [d] Need of loans
 - [e] Willingness to participate in co-op activities
- 4) Have you taken any loan from the bank Yes / No.
If yes
 - A] Amount
 - B] Date of Receipt of the amount borrowed.
- 5) How much of the same have been repaid.
- 6) Do you feel that repayment installment are paid by you in time.
- 7) How much balance is outstanding from above loan as on today? Rs.
- 8) Have you any kind of saving in this bank. Yes / No.
- 1) When have you started your saving plan – Amount
Type of savings
 - [a] Double amount deposits
 - [b] Time Deposits.

-
- [c] Recurring Deposits
[d] Call Deposits
[5] Savings Deposits
[6] Pigmy Deposits
- 2) Have you continued the saving till today.
- 3) What is the balance in your account scheme. Yes/ No.
- 4) Have you dis-continued the savings A/c scheme Yes/No.
[a] What made you discamtinued the scheme : Dis-continue /continue
[b] Do you feel that the rate of interest is not adequate
[c] Do you feel that the other banks have better schemes then the Vikas Co-operative Banks Ltd. Solapur.
[d] Do you feel that the scheme is not attractive
[e] Did you financial problems which made you to discontinue the scheme.
- 5) What motivated you to continue with the scheme.
[a] Determination towards savings
[b] To have financial security.
[c] To arrange for your future plan relating to
a) Housing
b) Children education
c) Daughter marriage
d) Any other plan requiring more funds.
- 6) Have you studied the different savings schemes of Vikas Co-operative Bank Ltd., Solapur. Yes / No
- 7) Which scheme do you feel more profitable.